

Two River Marathon, Half Marathon, 5k and 10k Races

Lackawaxen PA

Sunday, March 18, 2012

Veteran's Park

Lackawaxen PA

(corner of Rte 590, Beisel Road and Scenic Drive, across the street from the Lackawaxen Fire Hall)

The purpose of this race is to bring a fast half marathon and marathon race to the area in the Springtime. A 5k and 10k race are also available so the entire family and friends can race and cheer each other. The area is known for its beauty. The Lackawaxen River was named the state River of the Year in 2010 and the Delaware is known as a beautiful, unspoiled river. Chances are good that you may see eagles during the race!

It's a celebration of running, health, happiness and Springtime!

The Two Rivers races offer:

- low entry fees
- disposable race bib chip timing with a start line timing mat
- technical wear shirt
- Post race food!
- All competitors receive commemorative 16 ounce glasses.
- marathon and half marathon finishers receive a Finisher's Medal
- the chance to see Lackawaxen on a beautiful Spring day!

The marathon and half marathon races will start near Woodloch Pines Resort in Hawley PA. A shuttle will be provided to take athletes to the start line from the finish area.

The half marathon and marathon courses have a net altitude loss of 560 feet! There are no major climbs on the course (the only climb of note is 60 feet over a quarter mile 9 miles into the race. Course maps to be added soon.

There are 8 water stations on the course. All miles are marked. Very little road traffic.

The course map is located here:
